TEST SITE DESCRIPTION Chatfield Reservoir is a state park in Littleton, Colorado, about 5 miles south of Denver, Colorado. The entrance fee is $7.00 per day or you can use a current Colorado State Park pass. This test site should be considered primitive and realistic. The test area is an old gravel pit. Dogs will reach swimming depth at approximately 15 feet from shore. There is a dropoff on the beach of about 8 inches approximately two feet from the water line. The area can be windy and there are no trees or shade, so please come prepared with canopies and covers for your x-pens and crates. The gravel pit is also shared with divers and long distance swimmers. There is no running water at the site and portable bathrooms are available within walking distance.

DIRECTIONS From C-470 take Wadsworth Blvd. (Colorado Highway 121) south, then east into the Deer Creek entrance. Once in the park, go to the stop sign, turn right and go 1.9 miles. Turn right into the gravel pit parking lot. Parking is limited at the site but is available across the road.

REGULATIONS The water test is sanctioned by the Working Dog Committee of the Newfoundland Club of America (NCA) and sponsored by the High Country Newfoundland Club (HCNC). VETERAN WATER DOG A purely fun competition for those dogs 7 years of age and older. Veteran Water Dog begin on Saturday following the close of the NCA Water Test. Your entry for this event is separate from entry into the water test. Newfs not entered in the test are welcome to register for this event. Decision of the judges will be final. Dog and handler will perform 5 exercises described below. A passing performance requires passing all the following exercises.

1. Veteran Directed Retrieve. Just like the Senior double retrieve exercise, only dog will get one object only as determined by the judge.
2. Modified Retrieve an Oar. Owner is rowed to 50 ft out while dog waits on shore, held loosely by steward. Owner calls dog to boat, tosses oar toward dog, dog must return the oar to the boat either back to the owner or the boat steward and deliver to hand.
3. Take A Line. Just like Junior Take a Line, except the drowner will be 75 feet from shore.
4. Retrieve an Abandoned Boat. Boat will be rowed to 50 feet from shore, and the bumper will be placed where the dog can see it. The dog will be sent to retrieve the abandoned boat.
5. Rescue. The boat and owner will be rowed to 50 feet from shore. The owner will disembark from the boat and position himself toward the front of the boat on the far side from the dog. The owner can peek out from behind the boat to call the dog, and stay there in sight of the dog but holding on to the boat until the dog rescues the owner and brings him back to shore.
